c. Licensor represents and warrants that the execution and delivery of this Agreement and the performance by Licensor of her obligations hereunder will not violate any agreements to which Licensor is a party or any provision of any law to which Licensor is subject.

e. Licensor agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Licensee from any and all actions, claims, demands, suits, litigation, proceedings, arbitrations, mediations, audits, investigations, or disputes, losses, expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees), or liabilities (together, "Actions") arising out of any breach of these representations and warranties.

If at any time Licensors are indicted for, plead "no contest" to, or are convicted of, a felony (or the equivalent thereof outside of the United States), or has committed an act of intentional misconduct that brings Licensors' name, or Licensee's business into public disrepute, contempt, scandal, or ridicule (each a "Bad Act"), Licensee may terminate this Agreement immediately, and/or shall recover all damages, losses, liabilities, costs, and expenses to Licensee resulting from or caused by such Bad Acts.

7. Term and Termination.

a. Term. This Agreement shall remain in full force and effect for the period commencing on the Effective Date and ending at the close of business five (5) years thereafter and shall automatically be renewed for successive five (5)-year terms unless specifically terminated in writing or otherwise terminated earlier in accordance with this Section 7 or other provisions of this Agreement.

b. Termination by Licensors. This Agreement may be terminated by Licensors at any time if any of the following events of default shall occur and remain uncured for at least ninety (90) days after written notice of such event is given by Licensors to Licensee: (i) Licensee discontinues its business or discontinues the business contemplated by this Agreement; (ii) Licensee shall have instituted bankruptcy, insolvency, liquidation, receivership, or comparable proceedings, or any third party shall have instituted such proceedings against Licensee that are not promptly dismissed; or (iii) Licensee is in material breach of this Agreement.

c. Termination by Licensee. Licensee may terminate this Agreement at any time in the event (i) of a Bad Act; or (ii) that Licensors are in default or breach of any material provision of this Agreement, and such default or breach continues unremedied to Licensee's complete satisfaction, for a period of thirty (30) days after written notice of such event is given by Licensee to Licensors.

d. Effect of Termination. Upon the termination or expiration of this Agreement, all rights of Licensee to use the Trademarks shall terminate, and Licensee shall, within a reasonable amount of time, return, dispose of, or destroy all materials bearing or relating to the Trademarks.

No modification of any of the terms of this Agreement shall be valid unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of each party.

c. Assignment. This Agreement and the rights granted hereunder shall not be assigned, sublicensed, or transferred by Licensor, by operation of law or otherwise, without Licensee's prior written consent.

d. Waiver. Any waiver, either expressed or implied, by either party of any default by the other in the observance and performance of any of the conditions, covenants, or duties set forth herein shall not constitute or be construed as a waiver of any subsequent or other default.

e. Survival. The provisions of Sections 7 (Term and Termination) and 8 (General) will survive any termination of this Agreement.

f. Severability. Except as otherwise set forth in this Agreement, the provisions of this Agreement are severable, and if any one or more such provisions shall be determined to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable, in whole or in part, the validity, legality, and enforceability of any of the remaining provisions or portions thereof shall not in any way be affected thereby and shall nevertheless be binding between the parties hereto. Any such invalid, illegal, or unenforceable provision or portion thereof shall be changed and interpreted so as to best accomplish the objectives of such provision or portion thereof within the limits of applicable law.

g. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in separate counterparts, each of which will be deemed an original, but all of which together will constitute one and the same instrument. Delivery of an executed signature page to this Agreement by facsimile or other electronic transmission (including in Adobe PDF format) will be effective as delivery of a manually executed counterpart to this Agreement.

h. Further Assurances. The parties hereto shall execute such further instruments and take such further actions as may reasonably be necessary to carry out the intent of this Agreement. Each party hereto shall cooperate affirmatively with the other parties hereto, to the extent reasonably requested by such other parties, to enforce rights and obligations herein provided.

i. Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be duly executed as of the date first written above.

REQUIREMENTS TO MAINTAIN YOUR FEDERAL TRADEMARK REGISTRATION

WARNING: YOUR REGISTRATION WILL BE CANCELLED IF YOU DO NOT FILE THE DOCUMENTS BELOW DURING THE SPECIFIED TIME PERIODS.

Requirements in the First Ten Years*

What and When to File:

- First Filing Deadline: You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) between the 5th and 6th years after the registration date. See 15 U.S.C. §§1058, 1141k. If the declaration is accepted, the registration will continue in force for the remainder of the ten-year period, calculated from the registration date, unless cancelled by an order of the Commissioner for Trademarks or a federal court.
- Second Filing Deadline: You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) and an Application for Renewal between the 9th and 10th years after the registration date.* See 15 U.S.C. §1059.

Requirements in Successive Ten-Year Periods*

What and When to File:

- You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) and an Application for Renewal between every 9th and 10th-year period, calculated from the registration date.*

Grace Period Filings*

The above documents will be accepted as timely if filed within six months after the deadlines listed above with the payment of an additional fee.

ATTENTION MADRID PROTOCOL REGISTRANTS: The holder of an international registration with an extension of protection to the United States under the Madrid Protocol must timely file the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) referenced above directly with the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO). The time periods for filing are based on the U.S. registration date (not the international registration date). The deadlines and grace periods for the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) are identical to those for nationally issued registrations. See 15 U.S.C. §§1058, 1141k. However, owners of international registrations do not file renewal applications at the USPTO. Instead, the holder must file a renewal of the underlying international registration at the International Bureau of the World Intellectual Property Organization, under Article 7 of the Madrid Protocol, before the expiration of each ten-year term of protection, calculated from the date of the international registration. See 15 U.S.C. §1141j. For more information and renewal forms for the international registration, see <http://www.wipo.int/madrid/en/>.

NOTE: Fees and requirements for maintaining registrations are subject to change. Please check the USPTO website for further information. With the exception of renewal applications for registered extensions of protection, you can file the registration maintenance documents referenced above online at <http://www.uspto.gov>.

REQUIREMENTS TO MAINTAIN YOUR FEDERAL TRADEMARK REGISTRATION

WARNING: YOUR REGISTRATION WILL BE CANCELLED IF YOU DO NOT FILE THE DOCUMENTS BELOW DURING THE SPECIFIED TIME PERIODS.

Requirements in the First Ten Years*

What and When to File:

- First Filing Deadline: You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) between the 5th and 6th years after the registration date. See 15 U.S.C. §§1058, 1141k. If the declaration is accepted, the registration will continue in force for the remainder of the ten-year period, calculated from the registration date, unless cancelled by an order of the Commissioner for Trademarks or a federal court.
- Second Filing Deadline: You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) and an Application for Renewal between the 9th and 10th years after the registration date.* See 15 U.S.C. §1059.

Requirements in Successive Ten-Year Periods*

What and When to File:

- You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) and an Application for Renewal between every 9th and 10th-year period, calculated from the registration date.*

Grace Period Filings*

The above documents will be accepted as timely if filed within six months after the deadlines listed above with the payment of an additional fee.

ATTENTION MADRID PROTOCOL REGISTRANTS: The holder of an international registration with an extension of protection to the United States under the Madrid Protocol must timely file the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) referenced above directly with the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO). The time periods for filing are based on the U.S. registration date (not the international registration date). The deadlines and grace periods for the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) are identical to those for nationally issued registrations. See 15 U.S.C. §§1058, 1141k. However, owners of international registrations do not file renewal applications at the USPTO. Instead, the holder must file a renewal of the underlying international registration at the International Bureau of the World Intellectual Property Organization, under Article 7 of the Madrid Protocol, before the expiration of each ten-year term of protection, calculated from the date of the international registration. See 15 U.S.C. §1141j. For more information and renewal forms for the international registration, see <http://www.wipo.int/madrid/en/>.

NOTE: Fees and requirements for maintaining registrations are subject to change. Please check the USPTO website for further information. With the exception of renewal applications for registered extensions of protection, you can file the registration maintenance documents referenced above online at <http://www.uspto.gov>.

NOTE: A courtesy e-mail reminder of USPTO maintenance filing deadlines will be sent to trademark owners/holders who authorize e-mail communication and maintain a current e-mail address with the USPTO. Please note that U.S. Customs & Border Protection (CBP), a bureau of the Department of Homeland Security, maintains a trademark recordation system for marks registered at the United States Patent and Trademark Office. Parties who register their marks on the Principal Register may record these marks with CBP, to assist CBP in its efforts to prevent the importation of goods that infringe registered marks. The recordation database includes information regarding all recorded marks, including images of these marks. CBP officers monitor imports to prevent the importation of goods bearing infringing marks, and can access the recordation database at each of the 317 ports of entry.

In October 2005, CBP released the Intellectual Property Rights e-Recordation (IPRR) system. This new system allows right holders to electronically file IPR recordation applications, thus significantly reducing the amount of time normally required to process paper applications. Some additional benefits of the new system include:

- Elimination of paper applications and supporting documents.
- Copies of the certificate issued by the registering agency (U.S. Patent and Trademark Office or the Copyright Office) are retained by the right holder, not submitted to CBP.
- Payment by credit card (preferred), check or money order.
- Ability to upload images of the protected work or trademark, thus obviating the need to send samples to CBP.
- Reduced time from filing of the application to enforcement by field personnel.

Information about how to obtain a recordation, and about CBP's Intellectual Property Rights (<https://www.cbp.gov/trade/priority-issues/ipr/protection>) border enforcement program, is available at CBP's web site, www.cbp.gov. Or, go directly to the CBP recordation page.

USPTO Emails vs. Potentially Misleading Offers and Notices from Private Companies

Make sure you receive our emails about your registration

We will send you email reminders when your deadline approaches to file the necessary maintenance filings to keep your registration active. We do not send reminders by regular mail. We will also use an authorized owner's email address to serve notice if a petition to cancel your registration is filed with the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board.

To receive emails:

- Authorize receipt of correspondence by email by checking the designated box on the Trademark Electronic Application System (TEAS) Change of Correspondence Address and Change of Owner's Address Forms on <https://www.uspto.gov/trademarks/teas/>.
- Make sure the USPTO is on your "approved senders list" and that email from the USPTO is not treated as junk mail.
- Let us know if your email address changes.

To update your email address:

- Use the TEAS Change of Correspondence Address and Change of Owner's Address Forms on <https://www.uspto.gov/trademarks/teas/>.
- If an attorney represented you before your mark was registered but no longer represents you, use the TEAS Attorney Revocation/Appointment Form to remove your prior attorney's name and to add your email address so that the email reminders come directly to you.

Beware of potentially misleading offers and notices

All official correspondence about your registration will be from the "United States Patent and Trademark Office" in Alexandria, VA, and, if by email, from the domain "@uspto.gov." Our email reminders will direct you to make the necessary filings and pay the associated fees online through TEAS, and will not request any fees by mail.

Private companies not associated with the USPTO often use trademark application and registration information from our databases to mail or email trademark-related offers and notices. These offers and notices may include legal services, trademark monitoring services, recording trademarks with U.S. Customs and Border Protection, and "registering" trademarks in a private registry. Most companies require "fees" to be paid.

These companies may have names similar to the USPTO. Their names may include the terms "United States," "U.S.," "Trademark," "Patent," "Registration," "Office," or "Agency." Some companies attempt to make their offers and notices look like official government documents by using official government data publicly available from USPTO records.

Where to report misleading offers and notices

If you receive a trademark-related offer or notice that you believe is misleading, please immediately file a consumer complaint with the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) at www.FTC.gov and retain the notice and the envelope it came in. We also encourage recipients of misleading trademark-related mailings to contact their state consumer protection authorities.

For more information, including examples, visit our webpage called "Caution: misleading notices." If the company who contacted you is not identified on our webpage, please email TrademarkAssistanceCenter@uspto.gov and attach a copy of the notice and the envelope it came in, so that we may consider adding the example to our webpage. Unfortunately, we do not have the legal authority to pursue refunds from a private company for you if you paid money or signed up for services based on a misleading offer or notice.
